THE TOMPKINS COUNTY JUNIOR SULKY RAKE.

Independent Self-Tilting, Independent Hand-Dumping,

The only Completely Controllable Self-Tilting Rake.

A child can operate it with either dump First-class in every particular, best of teeth, best of material, good workmanship; well finished, capacity for a great variety of work. Has many splendid points. The more it is used the better it is liked. Well worthy the attention of farmers and dealers.

Its teeth are spring steel, tempered in oil, can be raised by the foot-dump to any desired height from the ground, carried any distance and dropped at any instant, same as is done by hand.

It is the only completely controllable self-operating, or wheel-discharging rake.

No unreliable pawls, ratchets, clutches, springs, rim-bands, nor other flimsy traps to get out of repair. Any blacksmith can replace any iron on the rake that may be broken through accident to break.

Its self-discharging device has no lost motion, and is remarkably simple. It never fails to operate, neither does it conflict with the hand-dump.

It can be operated by the foot alone, leaving both hands free for driving, yet it is a complete hand dumping rake, at the will of the driver—thereby allowing of an agreeable change.

It can be discharged rapidly and easily, by either hand or foot.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, Guardian of Maurice S. Carlson minor heir of Francis C Carlson, late of Orrington, in said county deceased, respectfully represents that said minor is seized and possessed of the following described real estate viz One fourth part in common and undivided of the late homestead of said deceased, and one fourth part undivided of the "Bartlett" lot, so called, both parcels being situate in said Orrington, it being the same described in a deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County

That it would be for the benefit of said minor that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof put out at interest, or otherwise used for his benefit

He therefore prays that license may be granted him to sell and convey the above described real estate at public or private sale, according to the requirement of law

No. 76 State St., opposite Kilby St Boston

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Com'r of Patents"

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE.

Late Commissioner of Patents

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

THE WOMAN'S PAVILION

in which the Cincinnati School of Design occupies an unusually attractive portion This section is in charge of a devoted exhibitor (Miss Hess), who spares no pains in enlightening the visitor Some of the finest porcelain painting in the rotunda is of New York, by Mrs Wm J. Russell But I cannot stay now for details Instead of which, making our exit by the door opposite the Belmont Avenue entrance, we reach directly Miss Southwick's New England Log House and Modern Kitchen, where among many attractions of ye olden time, we see Priscilla as lovely as when Miles Standish would have courted her through John Alden, and when the honest maiden bade John speak for himself From this point, on the way to the German Restaurant we come to the gayest imaginable little Pagoda a perfect bower of blooming plants, devoted to the exhibition of the fruited results of Soluble Pacific Guano" From the German Restaurant—its music and rush of visitors—we go to

HORTICULTURAL HALL

yet before entering, we question the meaning of a white domed Annex and find that it is a nursery of a celebrated gardener of Surrey, England This Annex is very brilliant (or was when I saw it) in myriad varieties of rhododendrons Other flowers in season are promised to take their place and gratify the eye with a natural carpet of richest colors From Horticultural Hall lovers may lose themselves, if they please, in the most delightful part of the grounds, they may go down in the Valley of Lansdowne where the shadow—not 'the low sun'—gives the deepest tone of color to the verdant landscape, or they may, if of practical mind, keep on level greensward to the Dairy, which is rather disappointing in its absence of simplicity, yet quite well patronized for pie and milk and "sick"

Before reaching the Dairy we passed the 'Bible House," whose open volume, over the doorway, preaches to all the "earth" to listen 'to the word of the Lord' And now we cross over the pathway to the right, and reach the handsome and homelike dwelling-house of Brazil Next to this is another handsome building bearing the flag of the German Empire, and just beyond is an odd little construction of the Moors Other buildings of less note are around us but we pass on and over Belmont Avenue, to the inviting Lake, and to the very pretty office of the Tribune, whence issue daily such rich descriptive letters of the Exhibition Further on, and still by the Lake, though facing Fountain Avenue, is the "Rowell Advertising Agency,"—an admirably fitted up and all comprehensive newspaper office (just opposite the Government Building). The Pennsylvania State Building, none too handsome to correspond with the rest of Pennsylvania's work on the ground, is on the same Avenue, a little to the south, and just behind this, Tunis has an uninviting little Cafe, while the Turkish Bazar beyond is celebrated for its interest, and its fine coffee. Here we retrace our steps, and walking by the Lake (always on the northern side, because the pleasantest) we come to the Restaurant "Aux Trois Freres Provenceaux," and soon reach the "Centennial Photographic Building,"where so many innocent victims have been beguiled into sitting for unrecognizable pictures to affix to their free cards of admission. Again we are in the Grand Square and in front of the "Judges' Hall."

FOURTH DAY.

For another day (possibly the fourth) I would suggest entering the enclosure at 52nd Street, or the George's Hill entrance. This is reached by the Race and Vine Street cars from the Exchange. Directly on entering you are at the Glass Works, with the camp of the West Point Cadets to your left. To the right, in a tramway of Fountain Avenue, is the "Catholic Total Abstinence Union Fountain." To the left again are the Spanish Buildings; the Canada Government Building; West Virginia, [illegible] may not seem unworthy, from even the most patriotic point of view, for the Bazar to mention Ohio (which occupies the section of ground at the corner of State and Belmont Avenues) as remarkably handsome in its villa representation There is no feature of the Exhibition more worthy of praise than the way in which our State Buildings are thrown open to the general reception of guests To get into the English Buildings one must have some sort of influence, but America's generous recognition of all—rich and poor, famous or insignificant from afar or near—is broadly emphasized through all the States represented A stalwart Englishman rang the bell for us at the British Hall-door, which was opened by a guard on duty while the doors of our State Buildings are thrown widely open, and the greatest courtesy prevails From Ohio we have only to cross Belmont Avenue to refresh ourselves at 'The Southern Restaurant' Thence we are directly in Kansas and Colorado, a building immensely attractive within—indeed it is a complete museum of Western treasures, and here we are but a step from Old Virginia, all of which will claim later attention in another letter while now we visit the last of the chief building—

AGRICULTURAL HALL, AND ITS POMOLOGICAL ANNEX

Not less in size nor less in interest than most of the other main features of the Exhibition it is farther off than any from the principal gate of entrance, and so in enjoyment of it is postponed to this latter day " Near Agricultural Hall is The Great American Restaurant"—an eating-house, a picnic ground, a provider of sandwiches for itinerary luncheons—so thoroughly American that a prejudiced American could scarcely fail to enjoy it And now again we are in the lovely north-end of the Exhibition-enclosure—so lovely in the light of a lowering sun that we linger among its nooks and dells long after the Syren whose voice is pitched for fogs to a measurement of sixty miles, advises of the closing of the Buildings I have herein arranged for a tour of four days which plan divided among seven would be far better Four times seven would leave me yet unsatisfied

THE REBEL SPIRIT IN KENTUCKY

THE ENTHUSIASM OF THE TILDEN SUPPORTERS MANIFESTED IN HOSTILITY TO THE NATIONAL FLAG—THEY COMPEL ITS BEING LOWERED—WHAT A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY WOULD DO FOR KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS

[From the N. Y. Times]

As an evidence of the intensely loyal character of the supporters of the Tilden-Hendricks ticket in Kentucky I want to call the attention of your readers to this incident Carlisle is the county seat of Nicholas county Ky and is situated on the Paris and Maysville Railroad in the heart of an intensely rebel population They ratified the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks with wild demonstrations They were for peace and good will, for the millennium that would be here when the hated Radicals were defeated As a result of the demonstrations and the hopes aroused by the Democratic nominations the uncontrollable element at this 'peace party' gave a premature exhibition of their feelings in this manner On the evening of the 3d of July a large number of flags were hoisted by the Union people in Carlisle, among these conspicuously the regimental flag of the old Seventh Kentucky Cavalry commanded by Col Leonidas Metcalfe who died during the war The widow of Col Metcalfe married a Mr. Brewington a merchant in Carlisle, over whose business house this flag was hoisted The rebels, stimulated by bad whisky and a prospective hope of victory in November allowed their real feelings to come to the surface, and congregating together raised a fierce howl of derision, and finally demanded that the flag should be taken down supplementing their demand with threats of burning the house if their wishes were not respected Mr Brewington, to protect his family and property, had the flag taken down Then this same rebel crowd, flushed with their victory, had a flag made eighteen feet long and would have hoisted it had not a number of ex rebel soldiers directly interfered telling them of the consequences to the Democratic cause if they permitted such an exhibition to be made at such a time

The excitement continued that night until the evening of the 4th, when stimulated by the patriotic recollections of the day as advocated by the Union loving Courier Journal, the chief advocate of the Tilden reform peace ticket they congregated in a mass and began to yell and cheer for the Confederate flag and finally for the Southern Confederacy This patriotic fervor found vent in fierce and vile denunciations of Col Metcalfe and the flag of his regiment and the Union men of the place although in minority and disliking a conflict become aroused and a number of them rushed to the scene of disorder. Among them was James Blair a gallant young fellow, a member of a pronounced Union family and a brother of the Republican candidate for the Legislature from that district As he neared the fierce crowd a shot was fired, but he rushed on and another shot was fired from the rear of another man which struck Blair through the body The assassin turned and ran pursued by Blair, who soon fell from exhaustion He was taken to a room where he lingered until the next day in the afternoon when he died a victim to the intolerant rebel spirit which pervades the Kentucky Democracy—a brave fearless man murdered by the unreconstructed rebels who compose the Democratic Party of the State but not a word in condemnation by this 'loyal, patriotic, Union saving Tilden mouth piece the Courier-Journal"

A word about Col Metcalfe, He was the youngest son of a former Governor of the State, He was a brave impetuous gentleman who denounced rebels and their sympathizers on every occasion About the time he was organizing his regiment in 1862 a rebel, and celebrated as a duelist, insulted him in a public speech and the reply of Col Metcalfe was so bitter that the duellist challenged him He accepted and chose carbines, the same weapon with which his regiment was armed They met and Col Metcalfe killed his opponent He was accordingly hated by the rebels in that section most bitterly, and although he died before the war closed, his flag had sufficient in it to arouse the infernal rebels whenever it was thrown to the breeze All this, Mr Editor, in the State where its chief newspaper prates about the 'era of peace,' "the patriotism of the Democratic Party" and assumes to dictate to the loyal people of the country what they shall do to make this country great prosperous and happy"

Do you people of the great loyal North know what a victory for Tilden and the Copperhead Hendricks means? It means for the Republicans of Kentucky and the South brutal ostracism It means violence and outrage. It means what rebels have repeatedly said, when they are victorious, "You must leave the State,——you white and black."

Let the people know that temporizing is a mistake, that peace is put afar off in the event of a Democratic victory. Let the conservative elements who live in safety and peace in the North. understand what we know all too well, that this talk of rebel submission is the merest pretense. The Democrats have railed at the "bloody shirt" until repeated murders and outrages in the South have lost the horror that should accompany the recital to the North.

The "bloody shirt," with all the term implies, is a horrid reality, and you had better realize it now than six months hence

In a few days you will see excuses and palliations made for this murder in Carlisle of a Republican by an unchecked rebel mob on the 4th of July, but I solemnly assure you that the truth is given above, and it is only one instance of the 'vindication" of the peace-loving Democratic party—the party that hopes to rule this country and [illegible] the Union what [illegible]

SHALL THE FLAG PROTECT THE CITIZEN?

[From the Boston Journal]

Aside from all the other issues which divide the National Republican party from the Confederate-Democracy, is the issue of Government itself. This issue was raised in 1860, by the same Confederate-Democracy, when the American people elected a Republican President. The leaders of the opposition then declined they would not 'recognize' the election and proposed a trial of battle to settle the question. The North met this purpose and proposition by raising another question one entirely independent of the causes of objections brought against Mr Lincoln personally, and against his election. That new issue, thus raised by the North was expressed in the inquiry 'Have we a Government?' From that day to this the conflict produced by Mr Lincoln's election has raged with unabated fury, the Confederate-Democracy trying to make good its original protest against 'Republican rule,' the North with equal determination standing by its original purpose of first making the Government itself good, before thinking of compromise.

In this centennial year of patriotic fervor the North is more than willing to close the breach made by the war, to renew the ancient ties of social, business and political friendship. But this disposition should not lead us for one moment to forget the real cause of the rupture which occurred in 1860. Nor should it blind us to the facts of the Southern situation as they exist to day. The cause of the original rupture was the fixed Confederate purpose of opposing National authority by force. The facts of the Southern situation are that the spirit of the opposition to the National will has obtained actual control of the fifteen populous and wealthy States which comprise the Southern section of the Union, and that before this local Southern power the National flag has ceased to be a protection to American citizenship in either of these States. In the face of all this the people of the North are now called upon to do in 1876 that which they refused to do in 1860, and in 1864, when "peace" was offered through McLellan.

The question in our National politics to-day, therefore, and which rises above all other questions is that involved in vindicating the authority of the Government. This issue is presented to us from Mr Davis' own State. Mississippi has been revolutionized a la Mexicane, in 1875, in the interest of the Confederate-Democracy, on the same issue which caused the secession of the States from the Union in 1850. The Confederates of Mississippi say now as they said then, that they will never consent to live under 'Republican rule." Their language is this: "Expel your vulgar Republican administration from the National capital and we will make short work of the Northern carpet-baggers here and then we shall have peace." Exactly! And if we accept peace on those terms now, why did we not do so in 1860? And under this surrender in 1876, what shall we have gained by the war? We shall have the National authority successfully defied. We shall have the negro reduced to "subordination" to the dominant white race. We shall have the South re-sectionized on the issue of Race, Caste as a controlling balance of power in National politics. We shall have the National debt. There will remain the memory of the bloody sacrifice made by the people of the nation in vindicating the honor and maintaining the authority of the Government. But if that authority can be successfully defied—if the Flag of the Union does not protect every American citizen at the South, rich or poor, black or white,, what have we left but the results of a compromise which could have been realized as well in 1860 as now?

It is unfortunate that the great reformatory Tilden, as Chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee, should have sent circulars all over the State in 1868, asking his friends to send estimates of Democratic gains and losses as soon as the polls closed to that incorruptible statesman, William M. Tweed of New York. The object of this move was to find just how much ballot-stuffing in New York city would be necessary to counteract the honest vote of the State. Tweed's gang of bummers did not work well, but it is rather an unpleasant reminiscence for the great reform Governor just now.

Fast newspaper trains have been introduced in Great Britain. On the first of July the people of Aberdeen, 540 miles from London, were for the first time able to read the London papers of that morning on the same day. Copies of the principal journals were sent to the Lord Provost in celebration of the event.

THE HAMBURG MASSACRE.

STATEMENT OF THE COLORED JUSTICE—HOW LITTLE HE HAD TO DO WITH AFFAIRS, AND HOW MUCH "GEN" M. C. BUTLER TOOK UPON HIMSELF TO ACCOMPLISH.

The Charleston (S C.) News prints the substance of a written statement made by Prince Rivers, the colored Justice of the Peace at Hamburg, S C, to Attorney-General Stone, which differs materially in its account of his actions from the reports given by Southern Democratic papers. In substance he says

"Upon affidavits of one Robert Butler, he issued warrants as trial justice for Doc. Adams, and the other commissioned officers of a militia company in the town of Hamburg, for obstructing the highway and preventing the said Robert Butler from passing. This was on the 5th of July, 1876. Owing to some confusion taking place in his office on that day, he postponed the trial till Saturday, the 8th, at 4 P M., at which time Gen M C Butler appeared as counsel for Robert Butler. During the trial M. C. Butler asked for more time, which was granted, he, Butler, promising to be ready within an hour, but he never returned to Rivers' office any more but went to Augusta and returned with two companies of soldiers, and demanded the immediate surrender of the arms in the possession of the militia to him. After some talk with Rivers, he (Gen Butler), granted them half an hour to comply with his terms. Rivers then went to the drill-room of the company and consulted with the men, who were there assembled, to get them to give up their arms sooner than have bloodshed. This they refused to do, saying that Gen Butler had no authority to make them give up their arms. The time having expired, Gen Butler gave the order for the troops under him to fire, which they did, and said fire was not returned by the militia for some time. Butler told me he would have the arms or burn the town. I, Rivers, offered to box the guns and send them to Chamberlain, but Butler would not agree to this"

A DEMOCRATIC JOURNAL APOLOGIZING TO THE CHIEF BUTCHER

Democratic papers in the North are claiming that the outrages are condemned by the better class of Southern papers. The Augusta (Ga) Constitutionalist doubtless would claim to be one of these, and that paper makes the "correction" as follows

'In our report of the Hamburg riot yesterday the types made us say

'While every honest and fair-minded man in South Carolina and Georgia, and the whole country, must condemn the course pursued by Gen Butler and his men etc'

What we really intended to say was that 'while every honest and fair-minded man in South Carolina and Georgia must regret the course of some of Gen. Butler's men,' etc. Engagements elsewhere prevented a reading of the proof, and hence the error of the report. Paragraphs following the above relative to the noble gentleman, Gen Butler, whose kindness of heart is only equaled by his intrepidity, show that the sentence alluded to was simply a lapse which the best of us, in the midst of excitement and annoyance, may fall into. We make the earliest possible amende honorable"

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

It is reported in Indiana that Governor Tilden has devoted $500,000 to a desperate effort to carry that State. It will take more than a barrel of money if the great reformer is going to conduct his campaign on so large a scale as that

Democrats in South Carolina are advising the nomination of a straight out ticket and are urging that the State be carried "on the Mississippi plan" They made a good beginning on the Mississippi plan at Hamburg. Their State Convention is to be held at Columbus Aug 15

It is getting to be a rather dangerous thing to be a Republican member of the Legislature in South Carolina. Hon Jos Crows one Republican member, was murdered for that offence ten months ago three or four weeks ago Alfred Rush, another Republican member, was killed for the same offence, and among those killed and mutilated at Hamburg was Mr Atway, another Republican member. A prominent Democrat of Laurens said publicly, on the 27th of June, that the "Democrats proposed to carry this State if they had to take their shot guns and kill a few of the radical leaders" This policy appears to have become popular with the South Carolina Democrats

The New York World, after a week of intellectual labor, has hit upon the true explanation of that Hamburg matter. It says "It was shrewdly suspected that Adams and his band were prompted to their resistance of the law in order to give excuses for this demand, and that the whole affair was a deliberate and well-conceived plot on the part of the radical leaders" In other words these base but far-sighted negroes permitted themselves to be killed by Gen Butler's cut throats in order to carry out a radical plot" A nice, reasonable explanation, isn't it?

The Memphis, Tenn, Avalanche, (Dem) says of Gov Hayes letter

"However much we may differ on the vital point involved in the currency question, we cannot but frankly admit that is a brave, strong, national paper. It is braver, better and stronger than the platform of his party. We were inclined to believe that Gov Hayes was a negative character, but there is more positive self-assertion shown in his letter than has been exhibited by any candidate for President in the last quarter of a century"

Sitting Bull is said to be perfectly gratified with the reports of the Hamburg riot. It shows that Sioux civilization and Sioux tactics are spreading. Sitting Bull thinks all the prisoners, and not only four, should have been shot, but still he is not exacting. He knows it requires time to educate a community up to the Sioux standard.—[N Y. Herald

The Louisville Courier-Journal says "And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and did let none of his work fall to the ground —1 Samuel, iii, 19." To which the St Louis Globe-Democrat replies, "Nevertheless, the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel, and they said Nay.—1 Samuel, viii, 19

It is claimed for Gov. Tilden, and he has been quite vehement in making the claim for himself, that he has reduced the taxes in the State of New York $8,000,000 in one year. Any person of average intelligence knows that the Governor of a State has no power to reduce taxes. It is the legislature which passes the tax and revenue laws and makes appropriations. It is true that taxes have been reduced in New York about $7,500,000 in two years, but it is the republican legislature that has done the work. The present legislature consists of twenty Republicans and twelve Democrats in the Senate, and seventy-two Republicans and fifty-six Democrats in the House

The Republicans are forming clubs of "Haymakers" in Illinois, their banner being a scythe and pitchfork crossed before a wheel. They recall the couplet which was a favorite with Hayes men during the war, and very repugnant to Tilden's associates, and which run, if we recollect aright

"The mower mows on, though the viper may writhe,
And the Copperheads coil 'round the blade of the scythe."

We have yet to see one line of frank, severe denunciation of the Hamburg massacre in any northern paper that supports Tilden and Hendricks. One of the most violent secession papers in the Palmetto State can speak of the outrage as "barbarous in the extreme," and is willing to admit that the "feeling among the negroes" is that only of "terrified submission." But not a line to this effect is allowed to appear in a northern Democratic journal.—[Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

Before the war Tilden encouraged rebellion by declaring that the nation had no right to coerce a State, during the war he encouraged the rebels, at first by his silence, and after that by the declaration that the war was a failure, since the war he has pleased the ex rebels by his hostility to measures to elevate the negroes and to give them equal rights, and to secure them in the enjoyment of such rights. His election would practically be a declaration that the rebels were right in going to war, that the government was wrong when it attempted to coerce them, and that emancipation was an injustice to the South which must be undone as far as practicable.—Boston Traveller.

The givings out in the Maine Standard, the Boston Herald and some other Democratic papers that Mr Blaine made haste to leave the House for a seat in the Senate in order to escape investigation, is rather "too thin" Mr. Blaine has never been under investigation by the House. The investigation into the affairs of Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad was turned upon Mr. Blaine to injure his chance of nomination at the Cincinnati Convention, but he himself was never under investigation by the House. The story that he hastened to the Senate to escape investigation is therefore a falsehood which is utterly absurd in the face of the facts —Kennebec Journal

PLEASE BEAR IN MIND

THAT THE

MAINE CENTRAL

Train leaving Bangor at 7 45 A. M, reaches Boston at 5 10 or 5.30 P M, affording ample time for passengers to connect with the steamboat trains for New York, leaving Boston via FALL RIVER and STONINGTON Lines, at 6 P. M., or with THE NEW ROUTE via New York and New England R. R. leaving Boston at 7.00 P. M. It also connects with the Fast Pacific Express leaving Boston and Albany Station for the West at 6.30 P. M., thus shortening the journey via these routes, over previous time tables by at least a day's time, and offering the best route for the CENTENNIAL.

Express trains leave Boston for New York via Boston and Albany at 8.30 and 10 00 A. M. and 3.00 and 9.00 P M., via Shore Line at 1.00 and 9 30 P M

The Pullman Parlor Car will be resumed on day trains on and after June 1st.

NOTE. During the summer months the Maine Central will sell Excursion Tickets from BANGOR to BELFAST and return, and vice versa, good six days from date, at one regular fare the round trip.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS—First Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 18.

Mr. Boutwell made a personal explanation stating that the Democratic platform adopted at St. Louis charged that a late Secretary of the Treasury, alluding to himself, had forced balances in the public accounts. He denied that such was the case and read from the report of the finance committee recently made to the Senate stating that they were fully satisfied that not the slightest change has been made in the books.

Mr. Davis said if the books of the Treasury Department had not been changed since the official statements sent to Congress, he had proposed to review the report of the finance committee on the subject in a few days, and would then show that discrepancy existed.

Mr. Boutwell said the Senator from West Virginia reminded him of a child playing with geometrical books when he attempted to deal with figures. He did not understand the value of figures.

Mr. Davis, in reply, said the system of book-keeping in the Treasury had been inaugurated by Alexander Hamilton, but the Senator from Massachusetts knew well enough who interfered with them in 1869. He reiterated the charge that the figures had been changed, and said he was prepared to show it.

Mr. Anthony, from Committee on Printing reported favorably on the resolution to print 4000 copies of the testimony taken by, and the report of the special committee to inquire into the circumstances attending the late election in Mississippi.

Mr. Saulsbury submitted an amendment to print the opinions of the minority. Resolution adopted.

Mr. Cameron, of Wisconsin, from Committee on Foreign Relations, reported favorably on Senate bill authorizing the President to invite the International Congress to hold its 10th annual session in the United States, and to appoint delegates to the 9th session thereof; placed on calendar.

Mr. Ingalls, from Committee on Indian Affairs, reported favorably on the bill providing for the sale of Osage ceded lands in Kansas to actual settlers. Placed on calendar.

The morning hour having expired the chair laid before the Senate the unfinished business, it being the River and Harbor bill. Referred to the Committee on Appropriations, with instruction to report a bill reducing the aggregate amount for the improvement of rivers and harbors to a sum not exceed $4,000,000. A long debate followed, participated in by Merrimon, Morton, Sherman, Saulsbury and others. It was almost entirely of a political character, but not of general interest.

The Chair announced Messrs. Frelinghuysen, Edmunds and Withers, as the Committee of Conference on the Consular and Diplomatic appropriation bill.

Mr. Ingalls, from the Conference Committee on the bill to declare forfeited to the United States certain lands granted to the State of Kansas to aid the construction of a railroad, etc., made a report, which was agreed to.

The Senate at 5.15 went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

House.

The House Banking and Currency Committee met to-day, but again adjourned without taking any action on the subject of repealing the specie resumption law. The matter was postponed until Thursday.

The committee conference on the Army appropriation bill have to-day reconciled all the differences and hope to present their report in both houses to-day.

Last night's conference concerning the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill resulted in no agreement, but afforded encouragement that an adjustment will shortly be reached.

The committee of conference on the Sundry Civil appropriation bill have held several meetings, but have made no progress since last Friday. They meet again to-morrow.

Reports from the Committee on Territories, made and referred to Committee on the Whole, are as follows: Bill organizing the Territory of Oklahoma; bill confining the boundaries of Oregon to those defined in the Constitution of that State; bill providing for the election of Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor and Superintendent of Schools in the several Territories by the people on Tuesday after the first Monday in November; the bill also provides that the President may at any time for cause remove the Governor or Secretary of a Territory, but cause therefor must be communicated to the Senate. He is also authorized to appoint a successor to such offices for unexpired terms.

Mr. Jones of Ky., Chairman of the Committee on Railroads and Canals, reported a bill chartering the Sioux City, Black Hills & Pacific Railroad Co. It went over without action.

Mr. Kelley introduced a bill for the coinage of a standard dollar, weight 412½ grains, as provided for in the act of January 18, 1837, and to make it a legal tender for all debts, public and private. Referred to the Coinage Committee.

Mr. Hancock, from the committee on ways and means reported a bill relating to the introduction of fruit brandy and to punish frauds in connection with the same. Ordered printed and recommitted.

The Senate concurrent resolution making the special committee of the two Houses on the coolie question a joint committee, was concurred in.

The House at 2 o'clock went into committee of the whole, Monroe of Ohio in the chair, on the bill to protect the Texas frontier. The pending question was on the amendment offered last Saturday by Smalls of S. C., in connection with the Hamburg trouble, that no troops shall be withdrawn from South Carolina. Mr. Smalls advocated his amendment.

He replied to Cox, who said the amendment had been offered for bad political purposes. It was not so with him (Mr. Smalls.) He agreed with that gentleman that the State of South Carolina was rotten to the core and it was for that reason he wished the troops to remain there in order to [illegible] had given the [illegible] letter he read [illegible] would not give 10 [illegible] life. General Butler, who was [illegible] in the matter, would at once organize another band of Ku-Klux and hunt him down.

Mr. Cox replied to Smalls, and quoted from a book written by Pike, late Minister to Hague, entitled "A Prostrate State, South Carolina Under a Negro Government," and in which the members of the Legislature are characterized as highwaymen and pickpockets, who under the law rob the poor and rich alike. He spoke of the book as a "Revelation of the blackness of darkness in robbery and rascality."

Mr. Smalls asked Mr. Cox whether he had got a book of the history of the city of New York. (Laughter on the Republican side.)

Mr. Cox replied that he had belonged to that portion of the Democratic party which had driven out the rascals from New York, and asked why they had not done the same in North Carolina. (Applause on the Democratic side.)

Mr. Townsend of New York admitted [ironically] that the city of New York was "a land of pure delight where saints immortal dwell," and he went on to compare the population and debt of South Carolina and the city of New York. He spoke of Wm. M. Tweed as the ruler of the city for more than 12 years, and said during that time when Tammany Hall was in its power and glory, under Tweed, the gentleman from Ohio (Cox) brought his little carpet bag into the city, set it down in Tammany Hall and looked up smilingly for the approbation of Wm. M. Tweed. (Laughter on the Republican side.)

He alluded to the other lights of Tammany Hall, Richard B. Connelly, Peter B. Sweeney, A. J. Garvey, Ingersoll, Fields, Harry Genet, and spoke of the various sums which each had stolen and referring to the escape of Tweed said the Governor had not yet found time to investigate the outrage of letting him escape and that the Sheriff still held his office.

Mr. Cox replied to Townsend, and reminded him that it was because of Gov. Tilden's eminent service in driving out Tweed that he was now the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

Mr. Garfield of Ohio, alluded to Cox as trying to laugh the murder out of the case, and complimented Mr. Hartridge of Georgia, for his manly and honorable speech on Saturday last. He wished to know whether the Hamburg case was a sporadic or a symptomatic case, indicating a general feeling that black men shall not be allowed the rights and privileges of American citizens.

Lamar, of Mississippi spoke of the Hamburg affair as disgraceful and terrible, but he denied the propriety of introducing the topic in the House in debate. In conclusion he declared that the occurrence at Hamburg was a mobified element, not sporadic, but unnatural, and one that would disappear under good government.

The debate was further continued by Kasson, Hartridge, Hale, and Mackey of S. C.

At the close of the debate Hancock, of Texas, moved a substitute for Smalls' amendment, to the effect that no troops shall be taken from any State or service where the public interest requires their continuance.

Mr. Smalls accepted the substitute and it was agreed to 86 to 83.

The committee then proceeded to the consideration of the second section of the bill authorizing the President to order troops to cross the Rio Grande in hot pursuit of robbers.

The South Carolina debate was reopened by Hoge and continued by Cox, each speaking of the other as a carpet-bagger from Ohio, but Hoge saying he had carpet bagged with a knapsack, to which Cox reiterated with an intimation that Hoge needed a knapsack to carry off all that he had packed up.

Foster of Ohio, called upon the representative from Georgia to stop those infernal outrages and to be active in hunting out the inhuman fiends that crossed the bridge from Augusta to Hamburg.

Cook of Ga.—They never went from my State.

Mr. Foster.—They did.

Mr. Cook.—No sir, they did not.

Mr. Foster.—Do this, and then sing to us a panegyric on the vindication of outraged law, instead of talking about your noble blood—aye, a nobility that murders in cold blood a captured negro. If you have not the ability to stop these outrages, you are not fit to be the representatives of the people of Georgia. Do it, and we will say well done, and we will fall on your necks and rejoice! (Mocking laughter on the Democratic side, and shouts of no.)

Mr. Cook.—You have fallen on our property, and we do not want you to fall on our necks.

Lemoine argued against the second section of the bill.

Mr. Banks, of Massachusetts, proposed a substitute for the second section.

Mr. Cox resumed the discussion of the South Carolina matter, ridiculed Mr. Foster's expression about falling on the necks of Southern men, and asked him why he had not fallen on the necks of Pratt, Yaryan, Dyer, Jewell and others, and suggested that he would rather fall on the necks of McKee, McDonald, Joyce, Babcock, Delano and Avery, and would even rather embrace a barrel of crooked whiskey. [Loud laughter and much confusion.] The Republican side of the House had defended Grant and his administration against all those men, and when the gentlemen from New York (Townsend) talked so glibly of Tweed and others with whom he (Cox) had no association, he wanted to know how it was with Babcock, with Avery, with Williams, and the rest of these men.

Mr. Townsend—When did you dissolve partnership with them?

Mr. Cox—I never had any connection with them to dissolve. It was the Republican legislature of which you were the great trumpeter, which helped Tweed to his frauds in New York. Everybody knows that I never in my life gave voice or vote to help him.

Mr. Townsend—You never cast a vote against Tammany since God made you. (Loud shouts of order.) You are the most perfect tool of Tammany that has ever been in New York. (Laughter, uproar and great confusion.) You had to leave that chair, thank God, at the call of Kelley and go to St. Louis; thank God, you are out of it, and can't get back.

Mr. Cox—You sit down. I have got the floor. When you say that I left the chair at the beck of any one, it is untrue. I was elected as a delegate from the New York district and my alternate not being here I had to go, but it was at no man's call.—[Shouts of time! order! order! and great confusion.]

Mr. Tucker of Va., offered a substitute for the second section, but without action the committee rose and the House at five o'clock adjourned.

Bristow's Letter to the President.

WHY HE REFUSED TO TESTIFY.

His Reason for Still Refusing.

WASHINGTON, July 18. The following is ex-Secretary Bristow's reply to the President:

NEW YORK, July 18. Mr. President:—I have the honor at this moment to receive your letter of yesterday in which, referring with approval to my refusal to testify before a committee of the House of Representatives to what occurred between the President and myself while I held the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, you are pleased to add that your wish to relieve me from all obligations of secrecy, and to express you desire that all members of your Cabinet may be called upon to testify freely.

When I appeared before the committee last week in obedience to their summons I refused to answer any and all questions which required me to state any conversation between you and myself, touching official matters, whether the conversation took place at a meeting of the Cabinet, or any time, saying, however, to the Committee that no inference adverse to any one should be drawn from my refusal to answer their questions. I took the position distinctly, that I considered all conversation between the President and heads of departments, on official matters, confidential and privileged, and that the privilege existed, not so much for the protection of the parties immediately concerned, as for the interest of the public service. If I was right in this view of the matter, it would seem to follow that the privilege cannot be waived by either or both of the parties. Indeed, I said to the Committee, that I would not feel at liberty to answer their questions with your consent, although I had no opportunity to examine authorities on the subject.

I am still of the opinion that the public duty to treat such conversations as confidential and privileged is not removed or modified by your consent that I should make full answers to the questions. If the privilege were merely personal it might be waived, but I place it on higher grounds. I respectfully suggest that the appearance of the several heads of departments before a committee of Congress to testify to conversations between the President and themselves, running through a period of many months, would almost inevitably lead to the disclosure of differences of recollection and present to the country an unseemly conflict to which I would not willingly be a party. Besides, it seems to me, that such an inquiry by a committee of Congress tends to the absorption, if not the complete destruction of the Executive power and to the establishment of a pure legislative government. In any view I am able to take, it seems to me, that duty requires me to adhere to my announced purpose not to answer the questions propounded to me by the committee.

I beg to remind you that my opinion on this subject was repeatedly stated to you, and the members of your Cabinet, and, as I understood, met your approval. My withdrawal from the Cabinet does not alter or modify my duty in this respect, nor have my views undergone any change. I hope I will not be recalled by the Committee, but should they see proper to call me again, I cannot consent, as at present advised, to testify to the conversations held with the President on official business.

With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

B. H. BRISTOW.

THE INDIAN WAR.

No Danger apprehended to Settlements East of the Missouri River.—Wyoming and Montana in Danger unless the War is pushed vigorously.—Strength of Hostile Indians underestimated.

NEW YORK, July 18. The Herald has the following special:

Bismarck, Dakota, July 17.

No Indians have appeared in this locality since the battle, except in small parties, undoubtedly friendly, passing to and from the agencies. Rumors of hostile intentions have grown out of the fact that 70 lodges of Agency Indians are located near where the Black Hills train from Bismarck crosses the Cannon Ball, but these Indians are well known to be friendly, and are located on reservation settlements east of the Missouri river. The frontier settlements in Nebraska and Wyoming, and more particularly those of Montana, are in danger, unless the war is pushed vigorously. Sherman and Sheridan certainly understand the strength of the hostiles. Sitting Bull's band before it was joined by Crazy Horse, numbered 1800 lodges, over 6000 effective fighting force, and Crazy Horse has a force strong enough to defeat Crook in every engagement, without the aid of Sitting Bull.

Fighting Force of the Sioux Estimated at 10,000.—Agencies out of Supplies.

Col. Burke, agent at Standing Rock, estimates the fighting force of the Sioux at 10,000.

Major Mitchell, agent at Peck, arrived to-day. He says the Indian Commissioner reports 13,000 Indians at the Fort Peck Agency of which he took charge this spring, but he has been unable to find that number. He thinks, however, none of his Indians are in the hostile camp.

The Agencies are all out of supplies and the Indians are forced to hunt or starve.

A mail courier just in from Buford says he saw forty Indians fifty miles north of Bismarck yesterday evidently on the war path.

The steamer Carroll from Benton to-day brought 150 passengers, 96 of whom are enroute from Montana to Bismark.

A Tribune special from Berthold the 15th, says no Indians left that agency since the massacre, and none except a few young fellows were disposed to go. The agent at Standing Rock admits that some of his Indians are with the hostiles, but not as generally as has been represented. The Carroll leaves Friday with men and horses for Terry; 290 recruits for the 7th cavalry will arrive to-morrow. Horses for mounting them are not here. Four companies of infantry are awaiting transportation. Two companies are en route to the Black Hills. Ex-Sheriff Bullock of this party informs me the Key West will bring at least 100 more; 150 men left Bismarck for the Hills this morning by rail and six by river for Terry.

The Far West left Buford for the mouth of Rear river yesterday, with supplies of clothing, etc. On Thursday next six companies of the 22d Regiment, two of the 5th, and 100 recruits for the 7th cavalry, will leave here under Col. Otis, of the 22d, to reinforce General Terry.

The condition of Gen. Custer's widow continues alarming.

During divine service at her house yesterday she fainted and remained in a swoon nearly an hour.

The excitement on the Border—Settlers flocking together.

ST. PAUL, July 18. The disaster to Custer's expedition naturally caused uneasiness in regions near the Sioux reservation and in Dakota and in some border counties of Minnesota developed the proportions of a panic. Settlers in Murray, Douglass, Grant and other sparsely settled counties, flocked to villages, and all sorts of wild rumors prevailed. Governor Pillsbury sent agents to all points of the exposed front to examine facts, and agents nearly all reported the utter groundlessness of any cause for alarm. The Indians are all peaceable and peaceably disposed. Several military companies were organized on the frontier to whom the Governor distributed arms, which had the effect of allaying the excitement, and settlers generally are returning to their homes.

FOREIGN NEWS.

TURCO-SERVIAN AFFAIRS.

Strange Conduct of the Sultan.

LONDON, July 18. The Times Vienna despatch says that trustworthy intelligence from Constantinople, says the Sultan is greatly depressed mentally, and has secluded himself from his Ministers. The last time he received them his manner was strange, and he displayed alternately deep depression and violent fits of laughter. The investure ceremony was delayed because of the Sultan's condition.

England Ready to Join the Agreement of the Two Emperors.

The Daily News' Vienna special says it is reported that England has declared her readiness to join in the agreement of the two Emperor's conditions, including the preservation of Turkey, except the provinces able to effect their own liberation. Servia gave a hint a week ago that she was always ready to negotiate. This hint was of course not taken.

Russia's and Austria's Recognition of Montenegro.

On Monday Col. Ismailoff, a Russian, on Gen. Tchernajeff's staff, passed through Vienna for Petersburg on a mission, evidently with the object of propitiating the offended power. The correspondent points out that Russia and Austria only recognized the belligerency of Montenegro and not that of Servia. The Austrian frontier commanders have been ordered to treat the Servians who may cross the frontier exactly like Bosnian and Herzegovenian insurgents.

Fortifying.

Mukhtar Pacha is fortifying the hills south of Mostar and concentrating troops from Bosnian and Servian frontiers. The slowness of the Montenegrins' movements will probably permit the completion of the defences. It is understood that the powers consider Roumaina's demand inopportune.

An American's View.

NEW YORK, July 18. The Post has a letter from Turkey written, it says, by an American gentleman of high culture and ability who has lived several years in the Turkish Empire, and has had an unusually good opportunity to learn the facts of Turkish misrule and opinions and feelings of the Christian inhabitants. He writes that armed intervention on the part of some Christian Governments is the only possible method of bringing about a better state of things in Turkey. She is utterly incapable of self reform. The talk of a representative government, liberty, equality and fraternity from Turkish sources, and of a plan of Turkish self regeneration is the purest nonsense.

There will be a game of ball next Saturday afternoon between the Orients and a picked nine of this city. It will be a lively game.

We are told that tinkers are plenty down the bay. Porgy fishermen have all they can attend to. The fish are uncommonly plenty.

There will be an excursion from Belfast to this city August 8th, in order to give our down river people a chance to see the great show.

To-morrow will be a gala day for the Catholics. Their excursion will undoubtedly be the largest of all. A good time will be the result.

A two-years old child of Mr. Dana, on the Hampden Road, strayed from its home yesterday, and was picked up and returned by the Truant Officer.

from this city being the participants. They left the city at 9 A. M., in the "Cambridge" and private conveyances, and despite the heated atmosphere, spent the day most agreeably, returning at half past nine last evening.

The Universalist excursion yesterday was an entire success. There were about 1000 on the barge when it started. The party had a fine time and escaped the sweltering heat of the city. They returned in the cool of the evening. The full band helped to make the excursion more interesting and gay.

An old lady, Mrs. Mayville, was seriously injured last night, while on her way home from the barge. She was walking up Union street, and stumbled over a granite rock on the sidewalk, near the Bangor House, which is placed there, with rings to hitch horses to. Her face was badly cut in several places.

George R. Lancaster, Esq., had a "Harvest Home" yesterday afternoon, at his farm on Broadway extension, where a large number of his friends and fellow citizens assisted him in putting in the last of 25 tons of as fine hay as ever was harvested. One who was present says he never saw a better lot of hay, and that it has all been housed without being damaged by one drop of water. Notwithstanding the heat down town, a fine breeze made the occasion a perfectly delightful one to those who participated in the sport of haymaking.

CARD OF THANKS. The following card of thanks was received by City Treasurer Crosby, from the brothers of Wm. Tibert, who recently committed suicide at the Commercial House:

To the Bangor City Government:—

We, the brothers of Wm. Tibert, who came to his death by a pistol shot, at the Commercial House, Bangor, Me., beg thus publicly to tender our sincere thanks to the City Corporation of Bangor for their kindness in giving him a decent burial, and for their integrity and interest in all other matters connected therewith.

Hampden Items.

The weather has been quite warm for the past few days, and haying has been commenced in good earnest. The yield in this section will be very good.

Eastern Star Grange, No. 1, is progressing finely and its weekly meetings are quite well attended notwithstanding it is rather a busy time just now.

This town cannot complain of a lack of secret societies as it contains one lodge of Masons, one Grange and two lodges of Sovereigns of Industry.

The fall term of Hampden Academy will commence about the first of September; under the instruction of Mr. A. S. Rogers, a recent graduate of Bowdoin College. Mr. Rogers has the reputation of being an excellent teacher, and it is hoped that his labors in trying to build up a first-class school in this place will be successful. It is also stated that Mr. James Stuart, formerly a teacher in Bangor, will assist in running the school. Of his reputation nothing need be said as his success as a teacher is well known.

Political matters are rather dull just now. Many of the Republicans express some regret that Mr. Blaine was not nominated, yet they accept the situation with a will, and will go for Hayes and Wheeler in a solid body. A caucus will soon be held to nominate a candidate for Representative to the Legislature.

The Prohibitory Law.

Mr. Editor: The Commercial of last evening suggests that it is about time to let the people know what have been the expenses of the County of Penobscot under the administration of the present Sheriff."

As the enforcement of the "Maine Law" is a source of especial annoyance to the editor of that sheet I presume he refers to expenses arising from that source.

I will say for his benefit, and for the benefit of others interested, that I shall soon lay before the people of this county the whole expense of enforcing the prohibitory law from April 15, 1875, to July 1, 1876; I shall also take occasion to show what have been the results of such enforcement. The people will then understand the matter fully.

S. G. JERRARD, Sheriff.

Our correspondent Nopen writes from Winn July 18: Newell Alexander, a Micmac Indian, aged about 69, who was on his way from Quebec to Houlton and Woodstock, and who passed through Winn last week, was caught in a bear trap last Friday night, which was set by Alex. McLain, of Mattawamkeag, in the woods about 40 rods from the sunken bridge, two and a half miles from Mattawamkeag, on the old military road. He had lain there until 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, when Edward Hamel and John Savard found him, having been attracted to him by his hoarse and faint cries for help. He had heard the carriages passing up and down the road, and had cried for help, but the sound of the wheels probably drowned his voice. Some heard him, but were afraid. He had plenty to eat with him, but could not eat as he was nearly choked for want of water. He had in his possession a dipper with which he dug down three feet into the dirt, and was dipping up the mud and sucking the water from it. He had an axe with him with which he made a wedge, driving it behind his leg, thereby easing the pressure somewhat. He was caught just above the ankle of the right foot; but fortunately no teeth entered his leg. He is now at S. B. Gates' with his wound properly dressed by a physician, and it is expected he will recover.

Letter from Belfast.

BELFAST, July 18, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—The heated wave has been passing over us for the past few days, and if it was not for the cool sea breeze which blows in after the sun goes down, and makes our nights comparatively cool and endurable, we should indeed experience tropical temperature. Yesterday the mercury ran up to 90°, and last Thursday it capped the climax for this location by indicating 94° in the shade, which is the [illegible] noted for twenty years.

We do not escape the general business depression, and matters are [illegible] dull and quiet in our little city. There is but one vessel on the stocks in our shipyards [illegible] the one hundredth vessel built by the firm headed by the late C. P. Carter. By the way, our citizens are very much disappointed that she was not named the C. P. Carter, as it was understood she was to be when launched, as we consider it an act of justice and respect due to the memory of one of our best known and most energetic business men, and we are not sure but she will here be known as the C. P. Carter, notwithstanding another name is on the stern.

The shoe factory is in operation and employs its average number of workmen. Something is being done in house building around town, but far less than last year. Local trade is dull, as the farmers are busy securing the hay crop, which is fully an average for the past ten years.

The cause of temperance is still prospering. A great and good work has been done here by the different organizations.—Hundreds of men—young and middle aged, many of them hard drinkers, have signed the pledge of total abstinence and are keeping it. The only wonder is that with half a dozen rum shops ready to take advantage of their appetites, so many have stood firm, and the other wonder is that with the strong temperance sentiment here, even a half dozen men should be permitted to continue rum selling. The Reform Club holds public weekly Sabbath afternoon meetings. The lodge of Good Templars now numbers over 800, and is the largest lodge in the world. They had their annual excursion down the bay last week in the barge Clifford. It was the largest excursion that ever went out of Belfast, and the captain of the barge gave them the compliment of being the best behaved excursion he ever carried. A Temple of Honor will be instituted here to-night called the Heman Temple No. 16.

Political matters are very quiet. The Republican County Convention will be held here August 16. The nominations to be made are two Senators, Sheriff, Attorney, Judge and Register of Probate, Treasurer and Commissioner. The Democrats, emboldened by their partial success of last year, will make a desperate fight to carry the county, but if satisfactory nominations are made and due effort is made to get out the full Republican vote the county is safe.

The bay has lately been full of tinkers and our amateur "fishists" have been enjoying themselves. The porgies have also struck into the bay. Two steamers from Rhode Island yesterday took 1300 barrels in a few hours.

Visitors to Wesleyan Grove, just below the city, are arriving daily.

The barge Clifford will excursionate from here to Bangor August 8th to give us an opportunity to see Barnum.

Waldo County Lodge of Good Templars will be held with Sparkling Fountain Lodge at Troy Aug. 11th.

The dwellers in tents and cottages are scattered along the shore for five miles below the city.

Rev. J. A. Ross, Congregational, is away on his summer vacation, and Philadelphia is the central point.

Excepting Lewiston probably Belfast makes the best and largest exhibition at the Centennial of any city in Maine.

The Cary-Nickels concert last week was a success. The best exercise of the evening was Miss Cary's singing the Star Spangled Banner, which really brought down the house.

Hyde Park, Vt., Feb. 7, 1876.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston:

Gents—You may perhaps remember that I wrote you several weeks ago in regard to the use of the PERUVIAN SYRUP for my wife, who was suffering from general debility, the sequence of Typhoid Dysentery. I had tried the most noted physicians in this State, and also in Canada, without relief. At your recommendation she commenced the use of the Syrup, the first four bottles made but little impression, but while taking the fifth she began to improve rapidly, and now, after using six of the dollar bottles, she has regained her strength, and is able to do most of the work about the house; and I feel that I cannot speak too highly in praise of the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I have prescribed it to several of my patients, and have procured the sale of several dozen of it here. You can make any use of this letter you see fit.

Yours very truly, H. D. BELDEN, M.D.

Who said that "Men were never so like the gods as when bringing health to their fellow-men."

The following Approved statement will speak for itself

BOSTON, March 23, 1876.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

Dear Sir—A few days after the 4th of July in 1 I got my leg hurt by a fellow workman letting a plank fall, which struck me on the knee. For four months following I was under the treatment of the physicians at the Dispensary, at the end of which time they told me they could do nothing more for me and that I must go to the hospital and have my leg amputated above the knee. I was removed to the hospital, and lay there ten weeks under the treatment of the best skill the hospital afforded, and no pen can describe the great suffering I endured. My leg was swollen to nearly the size of my body, and all the surface of my knee turned black, and I was told that my knee was so diseased as to render it impossible to save my leg, and unless it was amputated soon I would die. When I first went to the hospital I raised such an objection to the amputation of my leg they consented to try one alternative, which was to cut out all the diseased flesh and replace it with sound flesh from the other leg. They did cut six pieces from my well leg and place it where the diseased flesh had been removed, but the bone was so much diseased that this experiment proved a failure, and I was removed to my home in a hopeless condition. Other physicians were then employed, until all the money which I had saved from my earnings had been expended, and one thing after another disposed of to pay doctors' bills until my family was in a destitute condition, with no hope for myself except to [illegible] death. At this time Mr. Hill, the police officer on my street, called in to see me, and, after rendering pecuniary assistance to my family [illegible] VEGETINE for me, urging me to have a faithful trial, saying when those two bottles were gone, he would see that I had some more [illegible] taking the VEGETINE three days [illegible] knee commenced to discharge, and I cannot [illegible] to describe the [illegible] charged during the following eight days [illegible] though [illegible] pain, rendering sleep impossible, after taking the VEGETINE three days the pain all left my [illegible] whole complaint seemed to be passing off [illegible] with this corrupt matter. The VEGETINE was not only forcing disease from my system, but giving strength from day to day. When I commenced on the fourth bottle of VEGETINE the swelling had all left my leg, and the sore which covered the whole surface of my knee, commenced to heal at the bone. I am now on the seventh bottle, the sore entirely healed and my health so improved as to enable me to walk all over town. The VEGETINE has saved my life. It has restored me to health, my knee bears the marks of my great suffering, [illegible] pleasure to show the [illegible] what [illegible] done for me.

Pain and Disease.

Can we expect to enjoy good health when the corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease, and these humors being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism and numerous other complaints. Remove the cause by taking VEGETINE, the most reliable remedy for cleansing and purifying the blood.

First Dose on a Boston Police Officer.

BOSTON, Nov. 7, 1875.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

Dear Sir—In the Spring of 1874 I was struck down with fever, which had a long and almost hopeless run. The best medical advice being in attendance, I was taken through the fever, but it left me terribly reduced and weak, with excruciating pains in my side, back and hips. I was completely prostrated with Kidney complaints, and no medicine seemed to reach my case.

In this condition I was persuaded to try VEGETINE by a friend whom it cured of the same disease, and it seemed as though I could feel the effects of the first dose through my whole system, and from that moment I began to mend, growing better from day to day, and I was restored with the VEGETINE until it completely restored me to health, since which time I have been able to perform my duties as a police officer, enjoying good health, and there is no doubt about the great value of VEGETINE in Kidney Complaints and similar diseases. I am, sir, respectfully,

WEEKLY COURIER.

CAMPAIGN EDITION

For 1876.

To be issued Three Months, beginning June 23d, and closing September 15th.

A NEWSPAPER FURNISHED AT LESS THAN COST.

In compliance with requests by many leading Republicans and with a desire to promote the dissemination of Republican principles and to aid in the present and emphatic Republican triumph in the approaching Presidential election, the Proprietors have decided to publish the WEEKLY edition of the WHIG AND COURIER for three months during the Campaign at a price hardly covering the cost of the white paper. The first number of the Campaign WEEKLY COURIER which is made up from the latest telegraphic and other news of our Daily, will be issued June 23d, immediately after the opening of the Centennial canvass by the National Convention at Cincinnati, June 14, and the Republican State Convention in Bangor, June 22 and the last number will be issued [illegible] with a report of our State election.

The edition will comprise thirty-six weekly numbers of the largest paper published in the State, each number accompanied by a two-page supplement, and will be furnished to new subscribers only at the following low rates.

One Copy, sent Postage paid, 35cts.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS

Three Copies to one address, -	$1.00
Ten Copies to one address, -	3.20
Twenty Copies to one address, -	5.00
Fifty Copies to one address, -	14.00
One Hundred Copies to one address,	25.00

We have determined to offer the Campaign COURIER at this low price solely with the object of bringing to the attention of those who do not now take any Republican paper, the current information upon which a sound political judgment should be based, and the merits and claims of the doctrines and principles which we advocate.

The coming Campaign will be one of the most important in our National history, and promises to exceed any previous contest in interest and excitement. It is already manifest that misrepresentation, calumny and sensational reports will be freely employed to deceive the public, and it is essential that reliable and trustworthy information should be most widely circulated to counteract such misleading influences. Every citizen should keep fully posted concerning public affairs during the progress of the Campaign, and the WEEKLY COURIER, with its forty-eight columns principally devoted to current news, will prove a most desirable compendium of information to be put in the hands of every voter.

Send in Subscriptions at once.

The Republican Town Committees and all other citizens who are interested in the success of the Republican Cause are invited to render practical and valuable aid by taking prompt measures for placing the Campaign edition of the WHIG AND COURIER in the hands of every voter who is not now a subscriber. The price is merely nominal, and the efforts of two or three earnest Republicans in each town can readily insure a general circulation of the paper among the voting population.

NIGHTFALL.

BY W. W. ELLSWORTH.

Alone I stand;
On either hand
In gathering gloom stretch sea and land,
Beneath my feet,
With ceaseless beat,
The waters murmur low and sweet.

Slow falls the night,
The tender light
Of stars grows brighter and more bright,
The lingering ray
Of dying day
Sinks deeper down and fades away.

Now fast, now slow,
The south winds blow,
And softly whisper, breathing low
With gentle grace
They kiss my face,
Or fold me in their cool embrace.

Where one pale star,
O'er waters far,
Droops down to touch the harbor bar,
A faint light gleams,
A light that seems
To grow and grow till nature teems

With mellow haze,
And to my gaze
Comes proudly rising, with its rays
No longer dim,
The moon, its rim
In splendor gilds the billowy brim.

I watch it gain
The heavenly plain,
Behind it trails a starry train,—
While low and sweet
The wavelets beat
Their murmuring music at my feet.

Fair night of June,
Yon silver moon
Gleams pale and still. The tender tune,
Faint-floating, plays,
In moon lit lays,
A melody of other days.

'Tis sacred ground;
A peace profound
Comes o'er my soul. I hear no sound,
Save at my feet
The ceaseless beat
Of waters murmuring low and sweet.

THE "LOST ART" RECOVERED.

Galen the most celebrated physician, flourished in the second century. His theory was that roots and herbs, properly compounded, are Nature's remedy. His cures were so marvellous that he was accused of magic. His mighty skill and success silenced his enemies and his opinions held sway in the medical world for centuries, until the art of compounding vegetable remedies was gradually lost in the thickening gloom of the middle ages, and poisonous mineral mixtures took its place. But the clouds are breaking in our day, and the almost magical virtues of VEGETINE, joyfully attested by thousands, stamp it as a true Galenical compound, and as a blood purifier and health-restorer probably has had no equal since the days of Galen himself.

SCROFULOUS HUMOR

Breaking through the Skin on all parts of the Body

A Hopeless Sufferer Cured by Vegetine.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.

Dear Sir—Thinking that a statement of my case may meet the eye of someone suffering from Scrofula, I beg you to publish the following, which I cheerfully furnish of my own free will.

I have been afflicted with Scrofulous Humor from my birth and at times very badly. When about six years old the disease made its appearance on my head, and it was deemed advisable to have the hair shaved, but they were obliged to cut it off with embroidery scissors, as my head was so sore I could not have it shaved. After we had succeeded in healing the sores on the outside they broke, but on the inside, causing me great pain. There have been times when the surface of my hands was all raw from the effect of this humor and no pen can describe the great suffering I have endured.

About three years ago small kernels made their appearance on the cords of my neck, several of which grew into quite large tumors, and nothing which we could use would remove them. My whole system was so full of scrofulous humor that it seemed ready to burst through the skin at all parts of my body, and I was in a terrible weak and feeble condition. The tumors on my neck had grown to such a size as to disgure me badly. When in this hopeless condition I was advised by a friend to try the VEGETINE, and I at once commenced taking it, and after I had taken it a short time the tumors commenced discharging, and I do not think I overestimate the quantity from each tumor when I say that a good sized teacupful of corruption ran out, after which they commenced to heal up and disappear, and now my neck is as smooth and free from bunches as any lady's.

I believe the VEGETINE has entirely cleansed every taint of scrofula from my system, and I desire to have this statement published, so that other sufferers may find relief, as they surely will do, if they try the VEGETINE.

It will afford me pleasure to give any further information relative to my case to all who will call or address me.

ALICE SHIRLEY,
Nov. 11th, 1874. Mystic, Conn.

UNSOLICITED EVIDENCE.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., May 14, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side which was very painful.

I saw Vegetine advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what Vegetine has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

Every One Speaks Favorably.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Mass., Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be so sore at times that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your Vegetine. After taking a few doses I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor, and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances, and every one speaks favorably of its good effect. Yours truly,

P. S. SHERMAN.

VEGETINE extends its influence into every part of the human organism, commencing with its foundation, correcting diseased action, and restoring vital powers, creating a healthy formation and purification of the blood, driving out disease, and leaving Nature to perform its allotted task.

Judgment of the Public.

During the past five years the public have carefully observed the wonderful cures accomplished from the use of VEGETINE. From its use many an afflicted sufferer has been restored to perfect health, after having expended a small fortune in procuring medical advice and obtaining poisonous mineral medicines.

It is now justly remarked by all classes of people that VEGETINE holds a higher position in the estimation of the public than any other medical compound, and it has won its great reputation and immense demand from actual merit.

Its medical properties are Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic. There is no disease of the human system for which the VEGETINE cannot be used with perfect safety, as it does not contain any metallic or poisonous compound. It is composed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs, it is very pleasant to take, every child likes it. It is safe and reliable, as the following evidence will show.

VALUABLE EVIDENCE.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, D. D., formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be deemed as reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that this testimonial is the result of two years' experience with the use of VEGETINE in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounce it invaluable.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 164 Transit Street.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

O. T. WALKER,
Formerly Pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

A Walking Miracle.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir—Though a stranger, I want to inform you what VEGETINE has done for me.

Last Christmas Scrofula made its appearance in my system—large running ulcers appearing on me as follows: One on each of my arms, one on my thigh, which extended to the seat, one on my head, which eat into the skull bone, one on my left leg, which became so bad that two physicians came to amputate the limb, though upon consultation concluded not to do so, as my whole body was so full of Scrofula, they deemed it advisable to cut the sore, which was painful beyond description, and there was a quart of matter run from this one sore.

The physicians all gave me up to die, and said they could do no more for me. Both of my legs were drawn up to my seat, and it was thought if I did get up again I would be a cripple for life.

When in this condition I saw VEGETINE advertised, and commenced taking it in March, and followed on with it until I had used sixteen bottles, and this morning I am going to plough corn, a well man. All my townsmen say it is a miracle to see me round walking and working.

In conclusion I will add, when I was enduring such great suffering, from that dreadful disease, Scrofula, I prayed to the Lord above to take me out of this world, but as VEGETINE has restored to me the blessings of health, I desire more than ever to live, that I may be of some service to my fellowmen, and I know of no better way to aid suffering humanity, than to inclose you this statement of my case, with an earnest hope that you will publish it, and it will afford me pleasure to reply to any communication which I may receive therefrom.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
WILLIAM PAYN.

Avery, Berrien Co., Mich., July 10, 1872.

Reliable Evidence.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir: I will most cheerfully add my testimony to the great number you have already received in favor of your great and good medicine, VEGETINE; for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over 30 years with that dreadful disease, Catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breathe any more, and VEGETINE has cured me, and I do feel to thank God all the time that there is so good a medicine as VEGETINE, and I also think it one of the best medicines for coughs and weak sinking feelings at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the VEGETINE, for I can assure them it is one of the best medicines that ever was.

WEEKLY COURIER.

1876---Vols. XLIII--IV.

Daily Established 1834 - - - Weekly, 1815.

BOUTELLE & BURR, - - Proprietors

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR

In issuing the Forty third annual Prospectus of these standard newspapers, the Proprietors confidently appeal to the record of nearly half a century as affording the best promise of the future, while they will continue to spare no effort in maintaining and advancing their high character as

The Leading Journals of Eastern Maine.

Having thoroughly refitted our establishment we have organized an efficient Editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and with facilities at our command hope to make our journals still more interesting during the coming year, which will be

CROWDED WITH EVENTS

OF A NATIONAL CHARACTER.

Our connection with the Associated Press, from which we receive all the dispatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

Full Reports of Local, Domestic and Foreign News,
Proceedings of Congress,
Of State Legislature,
Financial and Commercial,
Home Produce Markets,
Editorial Articles, Agricultural News,
Manufacturing Intelligence,
Selected Stories,
Choice Poetry,
Entertaining Miscellany

And all the important and interesting features which make up a

First Class Family Newspaper

In politics the papers will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what they believe to be right, they will avoid intolerance and make their appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of unusually important political events bearing upon the future of our country, and unprecedented interest will be excited in the

GREAT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

OF THE

Centennial Year.

The celebrations of the Hundredth Anniversary of our National Independence will also be conducted upon a magnificent scale and the public will wish to be kept fully informed of the progress of those great events. It will be our aim to afford our readers the earliest and most reliable information and to favor only such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people.

HOME INTERESTS

as affected by the development of the resources of Maine, will receive special attention, and whatever is calculated to stimulate or benefit

Agriculture and Manufactures

In the State will be heartily encouraged. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will be sure of A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being the largest of any paper in this section, among the best classes of the people, and as

THE ONLY MORNING DAILY

East of the Kennebec,

our Daily issue affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine.

OUR WEEKLY

is also the largest and best Weekly Newspaper in the State. Every number accompanied by a two-page Supplement, making a paper of FORTY EIGHT columns, or one-half larger than any other Weekly. It is a standard publication, with large and constantly increasing circulation among the most intelligent and thrifty of the population of Eastern Maine, and the small space devoted to advertising is eagerly sought by the best class of patrons.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $32.80 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

All Letters must be Prepaid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, if papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, prepayment compulsory, merchandise limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

One cent an ounce, or fraction, weight limited to four pounds. Liquids, and anything that will injure mail excluded. All matter of this class must be wrapped, so as to be examined, without destroying wrapper.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington.

MONEY ORDERS.

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents
" over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents
" over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents
" over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German States.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order.

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter.

Office Hours—From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

Executor's Notice.

The subscriber hereby gives public notice to all concerned, that he has been duly appointed and has taken upon himself the trust of an Executor of the Last Will and Testament of in the county of Penobscot, deceased, by giving bond as the law directs. He therefore requests all persons who are indebted to the estate of said deceased to make immediate payment, and those who have any demands thereon, to present the same for settlement to him.

HANSON W. LEONARD, Executor.
Bangor, April 25, 1876.

To the Honorable the Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

Sylvester C. Gatchell, of Plymouth, in the County of Penobscot, Administrator of the estate of George W. Gatchell, late of said Plymouth, deceased, respectfully represents that the amount due from the estate of said deceased for the payment of debts and expenses of administration, as near as can be ascertained is sixteen hundred and fifty dollars; that the value of the personal estate of said deceased available to pay the same does not exceed eleven hundred dollars, and is insufficient to pay the same by the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars, and that a sale of some portion of the real estate of said deceased is necessary for the payment of said deficiency.

Wherefore your petitioner prays, inasmuch as by a partial sale of any one portion of said real estate the residue would be greatly depreciated in value, that he may be licensed to sell for the payment of debts and expenses of administration, at private sale, the whole of the homestead farm of the said deceased, situate in said Plymouth.

Dated this fifth day of May, A. D. 1876.

SYLVESTER C. GATCHELL.

STATE OF MAINE.

PENOBSCOT, ss. Court of Probate, May Term, A. D. 1876.

Upon the foregoing petition, ORDERED, That said petitioner give public notice to all persons interested, by causing a copy of the petition and this order thereon, to be published three weeks successively in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier, a newspaper published in Bangor, in said County, that they may appear at a Court of Probate for said County, to be held at the Probate Office in said Bangor, on the first Tuesday in June next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Notice of Assignee of His Appointment

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Maine. In the matter of Felix Quinn, Bankrupt. In Bankruptcy.

District of Maine ss. At Bangor, the 24th of June, A. D. 1876. The undersigned hereby gives notice of his appointment as Assignee of Felix Quinn, of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot and State of Maine within said District, who has been adjudged a bankrupt upon his own petition by the District Court of said District, filed [illegible] April, 1876.

JOHN VARNEY, Assignee.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned respectfully represents that she is Administratrix with one Frank A. Bickford of the estate of Franklin King, late of Bradford, in said county, deceased; and that they have settled their first account of administration of the estate of said Franklin King, and that she prays to be discharged from said office and trust, there being reasonable cause therefor, and that it will not be detrimental to the estate or those interested therein.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Maine. In the matter of Johnson & Fogg, Bankrupts. In Bankruptcy.

At Portland, in the said District, on the 16th day of May, A. D. 1876.

DISTRICT OF MAINE, SS. This cause came on to be heard at Portland, in said Court, and Albert D. Fogg being solemnly called to come into Court and show cause, if any he had, why he, and the firm of Johnson & Fogg should not be adjudged Bankrupt upon the petition of Noah W. Johnson the other member of said firm, does not appear but makes default.

And thereupon, and upon consideration of the proofs in said cause it was found that the facts set forth in said petition were true, and it is therefore adjudged that said Fogg and said firm became bankrupt within the true intent and meaning of the Act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of Bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved March 2, 1867, before the filing of the said petition, and they are therefore declared and adjudged bankrupt accordingly. And it is further ordered that the said Fogg Bankrupt shall within ten days after the date of this order make and deliver or transmit by mail, postpaid to the Marshal, as Messenger a schedule of their creditors and inventory of their estate in form and verified in the manner required of the petitioning debtor by the said Act.

Witness the Honorable Edward Fox, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof at Portland, on the 17th day of May, A. D. 1876.
